

ART, BOOKS, AND ITEMS TO BE AUCTIONED
AT THE
LOS ANGELES CORRAL OF WESTERNERS
RENDEZVOUS, OCTOBER 28, 2017

NEW, EXPANDED LIST! 80+ BOOKS!

1: Original Artworks: Two beautiful, professionally mounted and framed, large watercolors by Andy Dagosta, donated by longtime L.A. Corral member Bill Warren.

1: Dos Rurales (Left). Two Mexican Rurales in front of an adobe wall, both with holstered revolvers and crossed bandoleros, the left one holds a Winchester repeating carbine, the right one a single-shot Springfield carbine. Signed and dated (1997) at lower right front, and signed again on back. Image size 14.5 x 11.5 inches, overall size mounted 22 x 19 inches. Suggested Opening Bid: $100.00

2: El Mision Viejo (Right). Mission building with arcade at left, bell tower in foreground, with vegetable stall at right, hanging riscos, and male and female human and animal subjects, including vaqueros, pack burro, and vegetable vendor. Signed and dated (2000) at lower right front. Image size 17.25 x 13.5 inches, overall size mounted 25.25 x 21.5 inches. Suggested Opening Bid: $100.00

Both wonderful Andy Dagosta paintings were obtained by lottery by Bill Warren's late wife at two earlier Los Angeles Corral Rendezvous. Bill feels that it is fitting that they now be shared with a brand new generation of Westerners.

Born in Omaha, Nebraska, Andrew Sebastian Dagosta (1923-2009) attended Omaha Tech where he studied art, illustration, and drafting. After his WWII service with the 12th Air Force in Italy, Andy moved to Glendale, California, and began his life-long career as an artist. He ran a commercial art studio in Pasadena, subsidizing his passion for creating Western Art by cranking out advertising art. Andy's wife Vernice was the chief editor for Golden West Books, specializing in Western Railroad History and allied subjects. The couple had three daughters, then grandkids, and eventually great-grandkids. Andy left us in 2009, his wife Vernice in 2013. Both remain nearby, at Forest Lawn Memorial Park in Glendale.

Andy was a founding member of the American Indian and Cowboy Artists Society, and a member of the Los Angeles Corral of Westerners. He served as an "Exhibits Wrangler" in the mid-1970's. He was pictured on the cover of the Los Angeles Corral’s Special 50th Anniversary Branding Iron No. 209 (Fall, 1997), alongside Dick Yale, Tony Kroll, and the legendary Ray Allen Billington. His work appeared in no fewer than three different Brand Books, but his most memorable contribution was in Brand Book 16 (1982) of the Los Angeles Corral: A Color Portfolio of Andy Dagosta’s Oil Paintings, incorporating 15 images, still treasured by those fortunate enough to own a copy.

In addition to oils and watercolors, award-winning artist Dagosta produced prints and lithographs of western-themed portraits and landscapes. He also drew historic maps and did cover art for magazines and books, as well as internal illustrations, sometimes western, sometimes not. Andy even dashed off cartoons for friends and fellow Westerners. One was up on the wall of Mission San Fernando for many years, admonishing visitors not to smoke within the sacred precincts, done at the behest of Msgr. Weber.

Recent Valuations of Similar Andy Dagosta Artworks:

Disclaimer:

The Los Angeles Corral of Westerners is a non-profit organization. Our annual Rendezvous has, for the past 70+ years, been a primary means of raising funds through donations. The auction items listed above have all been donated in support of this fund-raising effort. In some specific cases, successful “bids” on donated items (i.e.: artworks, rare books, etc.) in excess of the item’s fair market value may also be tax-deductible donations to the Los Angeles Corral of Westerners. Consult with your tax professional for more information. All items are “as is” and can be inspected at our Rendezvous on October 28, 2017. All silent auction items will be accompanied by a bid sheet, so that interested parties can write down their proposed donation amount adjacent to their name.

The silent auction will run for two hours, from 4 to 6 P.M. At its conclusion the person whose name is on the lowest line of the bid sheet (i.e., the highest donation offered) “wins” the item. Books will be delivered during our dinner, after 6:30 P.M., at which time donation payments must be made. All donations must be either in cash or check- sorry, no credit card donations can be accepted. “Suggested Bid” does not indicate the minimum bid allowable: please feel free to offer a lower bid than the amount “suggested” on the list above.

Eager Beavers may Email bids in advance of the Rendezvous to Sheriff Brian, who will note them down on the individual bid sheets, and periodically update this master listing with the highest bid noted in red. For L.A. Corral members or any other interested parties who cannot attend the Rendezvous, Sheriff Brian will make bids by proxy, noting the name and amount on bid sheets: contact him at: briandervindillon@gmail.com. He can also arrange mailing to distant bidders.

We are still taking donations! Contact Sheriff Brian (briandervindillon@gmail.com) for pickup!

Many thanks for your support! And. . . See You There on the 28th!
