

The WESTERNERS Los Angeles Corral

Wednesday, February 12th, 2020 Roundup

Almanson Court - 700 South Almanson Street, Alhambra, CA
Social Hour at 5 P.M., Dinner at 6 P.M.

Our Speaker: Charles King

His Subject: Wild West Gunslingers: Short biographies of various gunmen, lawmen, feuds, and their outcomes.

Charles Randy King will entertain us with stories of “Wild West” gunmen, lawmen, and feuds. A series of old-time photographs will accompany his talk on notable characters such as gunfighter Pink Higgins; businessman, cowboy and gambler Luke Short; lawman and professional killer Jim “Killin’ Jim” Miller; and fearless frontiersman, detective and Marshal “Wild” Bill Fossett. After this presentation, the lines may blur between those you consider a lawful man or a gunman.

Charles Randy King is a Corresponding Member of our Corral. He has worked in the broadcast industry for most of his adult life, while raising a family and actively being involved in community affairs. Randy has always been an avid student of American History and gravitates to the “Wild West”, which is the genre of several of his published books. He has also worked and collaborated with the History Academy in Gettysburg, PA, providing crucial research, development, and budgeting for various projects for shows of historical content for presentation to a variety of cable networks. These include the History Channel, National Geographic, and the Military Channel. In addition to his published books, Charles Randy King has developed and written two screen plays, of which one screen play and one book have been ‘optioned’ and are currently in development for the movie industry.
