

The WESTERNERS Los Angeles Corral

Wednesday, August 10, 2022 Roundup

Almanson Court - 700 South Almanson Street, Alhambra, CA

Social Hour at 5 P.M., Dinner at 6 P.M.

Our Speaker: Jillian Moore, 2022 Autry Fellow

Her Subject: Re-Making the Image of the American West: Archiving Pioneer Women and Their Things

The August Westerners meeting presenter will be Jillian Moore, an English PhD candidate and teaching fellow at Duquesne University. She is also the out-going graduate student representative to the Western Literature Association. Her dissertation project asks the question: How can the things we make tell the story of ourselves?

In her dissertation she discusses how manmade objects from various frontier identities and experiences highlight the ways those identities can and have contributed to a growing body of work by scholars who are working to review settler colonial narratives of the American West. In redefining pioneer women as racially and culturally diverse contributors to domestic, public and cultural economics, she revises and reimages the role of women in the American West.

To this end, Ms. Moore's work considers two broad and intertwined categories of object made by frontier women as evidence: written accounts of frontier and pioneer life and material objects (i.e., handwork, fiber arts, beadwork). In her talk, she will share the discoveries she found while researching the diaries, journals, and narratives as well as indigenous clothing and beadwork produced by pioneer and frontier women.

Please join us for what promises to be a most unusual presentation by our 2022 Autry Scholar.

Suggestions for future programs are always welcome. Contact John Shea at (562) 408-6959 or johnshea23@ca.rr.com with your ideas and program topics.
