Dillon, the late Andy Florez, the Estate of Richard Gilman, Abe Hoffman, Jim Macklin, the late Ruth Malora, Stan Paher, Jim Shuttleworth, Glenn Thornhill, and the late Froylán Tiscareño.

All books are “as is” and have been graded as either in new, good, fair, or poor condition. We hope to receive a donation of $10.00 for most hardbound books in new or good condition, a $5.00 donation for most soft-cover books in new or good condition, and donations of one or two dollars for most pamphlets and paperbacks. All donations for any of these books must be in cash or by check- sorry, no credit card donations can be accepted. “Suggested Bid” does not indicate the minimum bid allowable: please feel free to offer a lower bid than the amount “suggested” on the list above. But, if in our opinion your bid is ridiculously low, we may not accept it. This is because many of the books offered for five or ten dollars by the L.A. Corral are sold by used booksellers for five or ten times that amount.

Request your books by Email: send your request to Brian, who has created the present catalog, at briandervindillon@gmail.com and he will see if he can bring the book(s) to the next scheduled round-up. In some cases he can mail books to those who live at some distance, for an additional postage charge. Because all books are boxed up in storage, delays may occur between request and delivery. This option is being held in abeyance by the 2020-21 COVID 19 Pandemic. We hope to resuscitate it after our recovery from this malaise.

Tax Deductions: The fair value of books, art and other materials donated to the Corral may be deductible to the donor subject to limitations. Since these limitations have changed under current-year legislation, such as The Coronavirus Response and Relief Supplemental Appropriations Act of 2021, be sure to discuss these matters with your professional tax advisor.

To Donate Books: If you want to donate books to the Los Angeles Corral of the Westerners, you can bring them to our monthly Round-ups and give them to either Brian or John Dillon. Please make certain that you put a note in your box of books with your name, so that we can list you as their donor in future catalogs. If you or someone you know has a large library they would like to donate to the Los Angeles Corral, please contact Brian via Email briandervindillon@gmail.com so that he can arrange a mutually-convenient time to collect them. Also please indicate whether you have or you need cardboard boxes to transport your library.
