“Mutiny and Fresh Fish – A Tale of a Movie Prop”

Matthew Smathers, Treasure Diver, off U.S. Lane Victory, San Pedro, California

Matthew is a local lad, who was born in Montebello and raised in Whittier, where he graduated high school. His passion has been the study of history, especially maritime history, ever since he was nine years old. He has taken numerous history college courses, but has spent much time diving to over 300 ship wrecks. He has intensified his dives since 2017 and is looking forward to conducting a local dive off Catalina Island on Sept. 8. This dive will be search for the wreckage of the schooner “The Lilly” near Cherry Valley Cove. This ship was featured in the classic 1935 movie “Mutiny on the Bounty” with Clark Gable and Charles Laughton.
